Dear friends,

On October 30, 2008 the Network for Peace through Dialogue will hold our annual Recognition Night to celebrate and honor Instruments of Peace. We will hold our event at the Marymount School (E. 84th and 5th Avenue). At this time we will have an auction and a journal to raise money for our work of promoting dialogue as a tool to establish peace among individuals and communities.

We hope that you will join us as an Instrument of Peace and respectfully request you to donate a gift certificate for our cause, of which we will be most appreciative. Not only will you receive recognition as a contributor to the good works of the non-profit world, but you will gain additional business.

Another way for you to contribute would be to place an ad in our commemorative journal for the event. Please use the enclosed card with your journal ad.

Either of these means of support will benefit you and us. We will need them by September 22. The Network is a 501c3 organization and all donations are tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. We will be happy to send you our tax-exempt certificate for your files. Please call with any questions. 212-426-5818.

Most sincerely,

Sr. Virginia Dorgan, R.S.H.M., Executive Director and the working team for the October Recognition Night.

*The Network for Peace through Dialogue creates opportunities for individuals and communities at the grassroots level to engage in constructive conversation in an atmosphere of openness and mutual respect.. To accomplish this, the Network sponsors the Confronting Concerns, Communities in Dialogue and Living Room Dialogue programs. It also publishes a newsletter.
The Network is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization.*
